

IUGS INTERNATIONAL COMMISSION ON THE HISTORY OF GEOLOGICAL SCIENCES (INHIGEO)

Financial support to attend INHIGEO 2022 conferences and symposia

INHIGEO has limited funds to support the attendance of students, early-career scholars and participants from poor countries to the INHIGEO sponsored session at the 6th IPC in Thailand 2022:

Hidden histories revealed in scientific revision of palaeontological collections

By Kathleen Histon, Susan Turner and Toshihiro Yamada

Any student, post-doc, member/associate member of INHIGEO from a poor country may apply for assistance by sending in an informal letter of application, a CV including list of geohistorical publications, if available. INHIGEO membership for students or post-docs is not required. Successful applicants will be expected to make a presentation within the INHIGEO session at the conference.

All applications for financial assistance (normally 300 € per person) should be received by the Secretary General Martina Kölbl-Ebert m.koelbl@lmu.de no later than 31 March 2022.

The INHIGEO Board will decide as soon as possible and no later than mid-May.
