

IPC6 EXCURSION

SPECIAL ROUTE: King Cobra Route: 30 Euro/person

Experience the unseen route of Thailand where you can watch eye-opening performances between people and king cobras at the King Cobra Village. Relieve from daily stress with herbal Thai massage and local food. Then explore the Ku Prapachai, an archaeological site constructed from laterite and sandstone. It has been estimated that this wonder was built in King Jayavarman VII reign, 1720-1780 B.E. After that, visit the Prathat Kham Kaen, an ancient and sacred stupa that is also the oldest stupa in Khon Kaen's history.

1-day trip (Wednesday, 9th November 2022)

1-day trip (Wednesday, 9th November 2022)

8.30 Move from Pullman Hotel to the King Cobra Village

9.30 Enjoy King Cobra performances and local Thai herbal massage at the village

11.00 Walk a short trail to explore snakes (in a safe environment) & Local products market

12.00 Local Isan-style lunch at King Cobra village

13.00 Explore the archaeological site Ku Prapachai

14.00 Visit Phrathat Kham Kaen, oldest stupa in Khon Kaen's history

15.30 Feel the vibes of nature at Plook Sook Farm & Cafe

16.30 Head back to Khon Kaen city

17.00 Safely arrive at Pullman Hotel, Khon Kaen city

* The program is subject to change depending on weather conditions ****

This pricing includes:

Trip guide fee, 1 meal, vehicle rent, and travel insurance

KING COBRA Route

- King Cobra village ,
- Ku Prapachai
(Kâmer stone temple),
- Pra That Kham Kaen
- Farmplooksook

MAP : KING COBRA

Route

